

Unit 5 – Courts in Poland I

1.
 - a) The court examined the case filed by the claimant.
 - b) At a hearing on 12 March 2008, the court decided to adjourn the trial and to hear the case in private, in order to decide on the appointment of an expert witness.
2. The court examined the case filed by the claimant.
3. The court – composed of three professional judges – declared Małgorzata Kowalska to be fully legally incapacitated.
4. A hearing is a court session where the facts of a case are examined and the evidence is heard.
5. At a hearing on 12 March 2008, the court decided to adjourn the trial and to hear the case in private, in order to decide on the appointment of an expert witness.
6. To adjourn a trial.
7. To be held in private.
8. To examine a case in an open or public hearing.
9. To examine a case in a closed hearing.
10. To examine a case in private.
11. To examine a case in chambers or to examine a case in camera.
12. To decide on the appointment of an expert witness
13. At a hearing on 12 March 2008, the court decided to adjourn the trial and to hear the case in private, in order to decide on the appointment of an expert witness.
14. To hear or examine a case.
15. To file a case.
16. A claimant or plaintiff.
17. A case is usually heard in open session, although sometimes it may be held in a closed session.
18. A case is heard in private in order to decide on the appointment of an expert witness.