

Unit 10 – Family I

1. A marriage is concluded when a man and a woman, simultaneously present, declare, before the head of a registry office, that they are entering into marriage with each other.
2. Family and Guardianship Code.
3. to enter into marriage
4. to conclude marriage
5. to contract marriage
6. Spouse – a husband or wife, considered in relation to their partner.
7. Certificates,
8. Birth,
9. Marriage
10. and death certificates.
11. An abridged copy of the marriage certificate.
12. A full copy of the birth certificate.
13. A death certificate.
14. Spouses have equal rights and duties in marriage. They are obliged to cohabit, help each other, remain faithful and collaborate for the benefit of the family they created by entering into marriage.
15. living together as husband and wife
16. marital life
17. marriage
18. Permanent and complete breakdown of marital life.
19. In the case of a complete and permanent breakdown of marital life, each spouse may request that a court dissolve the marriage by divorce.
20. to dissolve a marriage by divorce.
21. to file a petition for divorce.
22. emotional, physical and economic bonds.
23. When did you last have sex?
24. Living separate and apart refers to spouses living in different places without any intention of resuming marital relations. A situation where the two spouses have been living apart for a specific period is usually valid grounds for divorce.