

Unit 11 – Family II

- 1) Certificate of legal capacity to enter into marriage.
- 2) If a person intending to conclude a marriage is obliged to submit or present a document to the head of a civil registry office, and is impeded by obstacles that are difficult to overcome, the court may release that person from the obligation to present that document.
- 3) Ogonu Lelelho filed an application to be released from the obligation to submit a certificate on his capacity to marry, as his country does not issue such certificates.
- 4) The District Court in Poland - 6th Family and Juvenile Division - in the panel here present, releases Ogonu Lelelho from the obligation to present documentation confirming that he is able to contract marriage.
- 5) Were you breastfed by the same woman?